

Bristol Urological Institute

First Assist Robotic Training Course

Saturday 14th March 2020

Southmead Hospital, Bristol

This is a one day training course aimed at surgical care practitioners and allied health professionals working as first assistants.

The course offers a mix of lectures, case presentations, opportunities to share experience and hands on practical with the latest Da Vinci robotic system.

Outline Programme includes:

Lectures: Roles and Responsibilities of First Assistant – The Team
Practicalities of becoming a robotic surgical care practitioner

Hands On: Port Placement, docking, instrument removal and insertion
Emergencies Scenarios

Delegates will be expected to have at least some level of experience. Please make contact with course organiser if there are any queries relating to this

Venue: Clinical Skills Room. Brunel Building, Southmead Hospital

Faculty: Jonathan Aning, Consultant Urological Robotic Surgeon - Bristol
Sarah Crosswell, Urology Theatre Sister - Bristol
Beatriz Mora, Urology Robotic Surgical Practitioner - Bristol
Sharon Barratt, Urology Robotic Surgical Practitioner - Bristol
Paul Asprey, Da Vinci

Cost: £125 per person Limited to 12 delegates

Pre course observation day: There is the option for delegates to come and observe for the day on the Friday before the course at no extra cost. This is limited to 4 people and will be allocated on a first come first served basis

Course dinner: available for those arriving in Bristol the evening before

“a productive day for sharing experiences and team insights“

“welcoming and friendly atmosphere“

“educationally very rewarding“

“thank you for sharing tips and tricks on how to facilitate efficiency in theatres“

This course is supported by

INTUITIVE

To register on the course or for further information please contact:

Karen Evely, Bristol Urological Institute, Southmead Hospital, Bristol, BS10 5NB.

Telephone: +44 (0) 117 4147942 email: karen.evely@bui.ac.uk